

Leonard ISD coaches and staff take on FCA Hoopsters

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 14 April 2011 11:32 -

April 7, 2011 - In what has become an annual event for Leonard ISD, coaches and staff for the district played the FCA Hoopsters in a basketball competition this past Friday in the high school gym. The games are usually a fun time of competition and at halftime a Hoopster gives an inspirational message of some kind - often to kids being drug free. Students and adults paid a small fee - $1 - to attend the game and enjoy the competition.

(Pictured above) Leonard coach Kyle Phifer dribbles away from a Hoopster defender; (middle) the Leonard coaches take time out for a picture with the Hoopsters team around the FCA banner; and (bottom) Leonard High School FCA officers (from left) Haley Brunson, Taylor Conti, Scott Bratt, Russell Wilcox, Tenasha Ballard and Wesley Orr pose with a Hoopster. - Photos courtesy of LHS Yearbook Staff