April 14, 2011 - Leonard Elementary School is again offering the SchooKidz pre-packaged school supplies for the 2011-12 school year. Order forms were sent home with the students recently and the order deadline is Friday, April 15. Payment must accompany the order and no late orders will be accepted.

The kits of supplies will be delivered to the child(ren)'s classroom(s) on the first day of school. Backpacks are not included, however. There is no tax on the price and each kit also contains some cool free items, in addition to the brand name quality products. Free items include personalized labels, lunch bag variety pack, "money from home" envelopes, and a coupon book.
