

Junior High Band earns first UIL trophy in school history

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 28 April 2011 09:52 -

April 21, 2011 - On April 12th the Junior High Band traveled to Pottsboro High School to compete in the Middle School Region 25 UIL Concert & Sight-reading competition for the first time in school history. The band played three prepared pieces for the concert portion of the contest, and then performed a piece written specifically for the contest in the sight-reading room. The band received a 2nd Division Rating (Excellent) on their stage performance, and a 1st Division Rating (Superior) in Sight-reading, bringing home the groups first UIL Trophy. - Photo courtesy of Matt Stidham