

Senior Spotlight: Jordan Breanne Riley

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 19 May 2011 15:05 -

May 12, 2011 - Jordan Breanne Riley is the 18-year-old daughter of Bruce and Tonja Riley. She has attended Leonard schools nine years. During her time at LHS she has been active in volleyball four years (two years on varsity), softball four years (two years on varsity), golf one year and yearbook staff one year.

Some of Jordan's favorite things are as follows: food, Luna Azul; drink, Dr. Pepper; color, purple; place Chili's; movie, Up; actor, Channing Tatum; athlete, Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez; team, Texas Rangers; song, No Such Thing by John Mayer; people, family, Mark and Maggie; book, The Giver by Lois Lowry and sport, softball. Her favorite thing/memory at LHS is when her friends helped her through everything.

Jordan's advice for underclassmen is "Study for Mr. Williamson's tests!" In her free time she enjoys spending time with Mark. If she could do anything, she would go back to Washington D. C. If she could change anything, she would see her family more often. Her pet peeve is people who aren't being themselves.

Her plans after graduation are not certain. She tentatively plans to attend Grayson County College or Texas A&M in Commerce.