

County hospices presenting a bereavement seminar

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 14 April 2011 11:39 -

April 7, 2011 - Home Hospice of Grayson, Cooke and Fannin Counties will be offering "Putting the Pieces Together" on Thursdays in April. This program will be offered free of charge as part of the outreach mission of the non-profit organization that was founded in 1982. The programs will all be held at the Home Hospice office which is located at 505 W. Center Street in Sherman.

"Putting the Pieces Together" is a four-week workshop which will address the practical needs and concerns that accompany grief after the loss of a loved one. The topics are auto repair, home repair, travel & leisure on a budget and home safety. The programs will be held on Thursdays in April, beginning April 7, from 6-7:30 p.m. The program will be presented by Jolene Senek, LBSW, the Bereavement Coordinator at Home Hospice as well as various professional speakers.

There is no fee to attend the seminar, but reservations are requested so that appropriate materials may be available. Please call Jolene Senek at 903-868-9315 or email her at Jolene.senek@homehospice.org if you have questions or would like to make a reservation.