

Leonard Manor and Pre-K celebrate Easter

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 05 May 2011 15:46 -

April 28, 2011 - The residents at Leonard Manor celebrated Easter with a party and by hosting the Pre-K classes at Leonard Elementary for an egg hunt. Lil Tuscana entertained the residents with songs during the party.

Pictured are (top to bottom) the Pre-K students dashing to pick up as many eggs as possible; Honor Coates showing the Easter party cake to resident Sandy Reinhardt; the residents watching the egg hunt from the front porch; a group of Pre-K kids searching through their eggs to find treasures and candy; and two boys show off their baskets full of found eggs from the egg hunt. - Photos by Ava Barlow and Linda Copeland