June 23, 2011 - The Leonard Graphic is the oldest business in Leonard, having been published continuously since 1890. The staff at the newspaper prides themselves on hard work to turn out a quality periodical, and ensuring the news is covered fair and accurately for the southeastern corner of Fannin County. The weekly paper provides coverage of breaking news stories, community events, county news, Celeste, the local schools, business news, and much, much more. The Graphic has been owned by Echo Publishing Company, Inc., based out of Sulphur Springs, since 2006.
