March 31, 2011 - Criminal District Attorney (DA) Richard Glaser reports that on Thursday, March 24, the Grand Jury met to consider 39 cases, and all but two were true billed or indicted. So far in 2011, the Grand Jury has returned 110 true bills of indictment.

It is important to note that an indictment is a formal charge and should not - in itself - be considered an indication of guilt. All persons charged with a crime are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

The law enforcement agencies filing the cases were Bonham Police Department - 15, Fannin County Sheriff's Office - 13, DA's Office - 8, and the Texas Department of Public Safety - 3.

The following people were indicted for the criminal offense and range of punishment indicated:

Daniel Glen Edwards, 30, of Leonard - Intoxicated assault with a vehicle causing serious bodily injury, a third degree felony.

Zackary Wayne Harlan, 23, of Leonard - Bail jumping and failure to appear on a felony, a third degree felony.

Tommy Ray Hodnett, 18, of Leonard - Burglary of a building, a state jail felony.

Kerry Doyle Beck, 20, of Whitewright - Manufacture or delivery of a controlled substance in penalty group one weighing less than one gram.

Chad Nathan Brown, 24, of Whitewright - Three counts of burglary of a building, a state jail felony, and two counts of engaging in organized criminal activity, a third degree felony.
