

UMC holding Bible study about Jesus' last 24 hours

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 10 March 2011 13:32 -

March 3, 2011 - Beginning March 13, join the people of First United Methodist Church as they embark on an important new study.

No single event in human history has received more attention than the suffering and crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth. In this study, Adam Hamilton guides through the last 24 hours of Jesus' life. Each session is designed to help participants experience and understand the significance of Jesus' suffering and death in a way they may never have before, whether they are long-time Christians or simply curious about the story of Christ's crucifixion.

This will be explored at FUMC Leonard beginning March 13. The community is invited to join them as they explore the significance of this crucial time in Jesus' life.

This special event will include worship, sermons, and small-group studies that feature videos, Bible study, and discussion. The study, published by Abingdon Press, was developed by Adam Hamilton, pastor of the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas, and is intended for anyone who is interested in the Christian faith. The study includes resources for adults, youth, younger children, and older children.

First United Methodist Church is located at the corner of Houston and Main. For more information, contact Pastor Martha Myre at 903-513-5845 or mvmmyre@gmail.com or go to our website at www.fumcleonard.org.