

FBC carries youth to Falls Creek

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 05 May 2011 15:40 -

April 28, 2011 - Youth from many area churches attended the annual North Texas Easter Retreat at Falls Creek Baptist Conference Center near Davis, Okla., last weekend. First Baptist Church of Leonard youth pastor, Dewey Watson, and his wife, Glenda, organize the camp and reported that FBC sent 74 this year. Jason Dyke - an evangelist who has become popular among area churches for his enthusiastic and pointed preaching - was speaker and music was led by Michael Bridges and band. Total attendance for the entire retreat this year was 1120, with 453 people attending from churches in Fannin county alone. Watson reported there were 66 salvations and 78 that said they wanted a closer walk with the Lord, plus three people committed to full-time Christian service. - Photo courtesy of Tiffany Barker