March 24, 2011 - American Bank of Texas in Leonard is proud to support the community and schools. In the wake of the big bank fiasco of the past two years, even the independent community banks have felt the pressure. But American Bank of Texas is still lending and looks forward to serving you in whatever capacity you need. At American Bank of Texas, we still believe in banking relationships and excellent customer service. Come see us! Pictured are (from left) Donna Gray, Tammie Bates, Jami Elms, Brandi Treadway and Tiffany Pitts, all from Leonard. They will be glad to serve you.
