

Seniors honored with luncheon at Methodist Church

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 26 May 2011 09:34 - Last Updated Thursday, 25 August 2011 09:38

May 19, 2011 - As is tradition every year, area businesses and churches have hosted luncheons for the Leonard High School graduating class of 2011. The First United Methodist Church of Leonard held theirs recently and the senior class enjoyed a time of food and fellowship.

ictured are (from top to bottom) Sadie Woodruff displaying a stuffed dog autographed by the class members; a happy Blane Lopez; and Kendra Dougherty and Maggie Foster who are all smiles. - Photos courtesy of the LHS Yearbook Staff