

Manor residents celebrate Valentine's Day

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 24 February 2011 14:35 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 March 2011 09:23

Feb. 17, 2011 - Leonard Manor residents enjoyed a party on Monday, Feb. 14, in celebration of Valentine's Day. Bill Cooper and Juanita Moats, pictured in the top photo, were crowned King and Queen. Linda and George Harwell provided karaoke for the residents and their family and other entertainers included David Magers, Lil Tuscana and Jamie from American Hospice.

The residents were served sandwiches, chips, dips, Valentine cookies, cupcakes and punch and had a wonderful day. Special thanks to Jackie and Carolyn Ivey for the cookies, Julie Price for the cupcakes, Mammie Johnson and David and Shelley Magers for volunteering to help with the party. Other sweethearts at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Eastup, pictured top right. - Photos courtesy of Linda Copeland