

Library has tax forms available free of charge

Written by Betsy Blevins

Thursday, 03 March 2011 09:41 -

Feb. 24, 2011 - The Leonard Public Library would like to inform the public that they have IRS forms for tax season available free of charge. Any person needing any kind of tax form may pick them up at the library, located on the west side of the downtown Leonard square. For more information, contact the library at 903-587-2391.